

Facts and Figures 2017

1 Mio.

Tune-ins per month on the Public Domain Radio (Internet radio)

40'000

Downloads per month on Wikimedia Commons

>250

Records cleared from Copyrights and catalogized per month

>500

Reference books and Copyright law literature (needed for the clearing of rights)

>75'000

Historical sound recordings (mainly gramophone records and phonograph cylinders)

>10'000

Unica and rara (sound recordings)

- Earliest sound recordings from the 1880s to the 1900s
- Vertical-cut discs of Edison and Pathé
- Decelith discs and the very first home recordings produced on bee wax
- Ethnic music from indigenous people around the world
- Pirate label records from the pioneer age of sound recording
- Speeches from the World Wars I and II
- Victory and transcription discs
- Very rare Jazz and Rock 'N' Roll incl. white-pressed samples